

Teaching Through Storms Mark 4:35-41; 6:45-56

4.21.2024 | Pastor John Barrow

*“Immediately he spoke to them and said,
‘Take courage! It is I. Don’t be afraid.’”
Mark 6:50*

In Mark 4:35-41, Jesus and his disciples face a fierce storm while crossing the Sea of Galilee.

Despite the disciples' fear, Jesus calms the storm and demonstrates his power over creation, leading the disciples to marvel at his authority. In Mark 6:45-56, Jesus walks on water to reach his disciples amid strong winds, revealing his divine nature and loving presence.

Sermon Notes

Disciple Makers: Teaching Through Storms

Mark 4:35-41; 6:45-56

4.21.2024

1. If Jesus is Lord over creation, Jesus is Lord over your “storm.”
2. On the Voyage of Life, Jesus is our Ever-Present Help.
3. The Best Lessons Happen in the Worst Times.

Ohana Groups gather to share, pray, and live out God’s Word together.