

The Parable of the Bags of Gold (Talents)

Matthew 25:14-30

July 5, 2026

Pastor John Barrow

In the Parable of the Talents, Jesus compares the kingdom of heaven to a master who entrusts his wealth to his servants before leaving on a journey. Upon his return, he rewards those who faithfully stewarded what they were given and judges the servant who failed to act. Through this parable, Jesus teaches that His followers are called to faithfully use everything He has entrusted to them while eagerly awaiting His return.

Sermon Notes The Parable of the Bags of Gold (Talents) Matthew 15:14-30

1. Recognize that Everything Belongs to God.

2. Stop Comparing Your Assignment to Someone Else's.

3. Do Not Bury What God has Entrusted to You.

4. Live Every Day in Light of Christ's Return.

"His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!'"

Matthew 25:23