

Great is Thy Faithfulness, at Camp, in the Rain...

Exodus 1:6-2:10

August 2, 2026

Pastor Kyle R. Fujii

"But the people of Israel were fruitful and increased greatly; they multiplied and grew exceedingly strong, so that the land was filled with them."

Exodus 1:7

Our new series is on Exodus. As we look for our next Senior Pastor, remember God's faithfulness. No matter what life throws at us, we can always rely on the fact that our God is a faithful God. Exodus is a great example of how God is able to make a way to keep his promises even when we think there is no way. Even when His people failed and wandered, God remained present, making a way for their physical and spiritual restoration. Exodus reminds us that no obstacle is too great for the Creator of the universe. We can put our trust in God because He always makes a way according to His perfect plan.
