

God Makes A Way

Exodus 2:11-25

“Fleeing, Waiting and Hearing”

Aug. 9, 2026 Pastor Kendal Fong

O Heavenly Father You always make a way for us when we cry out to You. Your ways are far higher than our ways. Your plans are always good. Please forgive me when I have forced my plans to be satisfied solely in my strength and my timing. Forgive me when I have taken matters into my own hands. Allow for me to see that I can daily trust You and wait upon You.

Help me to find comfort in the moments of waiting. When life shifts unexpectedly and I find myself in a dry, unknown place, help me to trust that You are still preparing me for something else. Please remind me that no season of waiting is wasted when placed in Your mighty hands.

*Thank You that You see the suffering I go through and You hear my groaning. You always keep all Your promises. Help me to remember or discover them and to trust in You. May You strengthen my faith in You, for what is ahead, will be good in the Lord.
In Jesus name, Amen*

Ohana Groups gather to share, pray, and live out God’s Word together.

Fleeing (v. 11-20)

Waiting (v. 21-22)

Hearing (v. 23-25)

Application Questions:

- How does God use major failures and past mistakes to humble and reshape you, and develop your character?
- As you grow in your relationship with God, how are the times of “waiting” (trusting God’s quiet timing) good?; how is it good for you?
- How can Exodus 2:23-25 be a comfort to you?
