Sermon Series: God Makes a Way

The Tabernacle | Exodus 34:1-10

Ohana Group Discussion Questions: Week of November 15th, 2026

🔍 OVERVIEW

God calls Moses back up Mount Sinai with new stone tablets and reveals himself as compassionate, gracious, patient, faithful, forgiving, and just. Moses responds in worship and asks God to forgive his people and continue with them, and God promises to renew his covenant and perform wonders among them.

🌺 OHANA TIME!

🧊 Icebreaker: Are you more likely to follow instructions or figure it out as you go? Or What's a little thing that tests your patience?

🙏 PRAYER

Pray: Lord, thank you for your patience and mercy; forgive our stubbornness and help us turn toward you with humble, trusting hearts.

📖 BIBLE: READ EXODUS 34:1-10

1. In verses 1–4, what instructions does God give Moses? What does replacing the broken tablets suggest about God's relationship with Israel?
2. What does God reveal about himself in verses 5–7? Which words or phrases stand out to you, and why?
3. What does "slow to anger" tell us about God? How is patience different from ignoring wrongdoing?
4. How do verses 6–7 hold together God's mercy, forgiveness, and justice? Why is it important to read these descriptions together?
5. How does Moses respond in verses 8–9? What do his actions and prayer reveal about his understanding of God and Israel's need?
6. What does God promise in verse 10? How does this promise answer the uncertainty created by Israel's sin?

🧭 APPLICATION

1. Moses asks God to remain with his stubborn people. How can God's patience and mercy help us recognize our stubbornness and turn back to him? What about his character in verses 6–7 gives us confidence to do so?
2. How can remembering God's patience with us help us be more patient with others in everyday life?
